Acknowledgments

General Disposal Schedule (GDS) 34 for Administrative Records of National Bodies is aligned with Keyword AAA, a functional classification scheme developed by the State Records Authority of New South Wales. State Records NSW gave permission for Keyword AAA to be used in this disposal schedule. State Records thanks State Records NSW for this permission.

State Records of South Australia would like to thank the members of the CAARA National Bodies Working Group for providing their knowledge and expertise and helping to create version 1 of this disposal schedule:

- Josephine Horner and Ken Scott, Queensland State Archives
- Amanda Barber, State Records Authority of New South Wales
- Linda Bell, Sharyn Coombes, Northern Territory Government
- Samantha Farnsworth, State Records of South Australia
- Martin Fordham, Amanda Casselton, Damien Hassan, Isabel Smith, State Records of Western Australia
- David Wardle, Elizabeth Estbergs, Danielle Wickman, Territory Records Office, Australian Capital Territory
- Allegra Huxtable, David Benjamin, Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office
- Linda Macfarlane, Russell Kelly, National Archives of Australia
- Alison McNulty, Julie McCormack, Christine Mitchell, Louise Jesson, Val Miton, Public Record Office Victoria.

Introduction

Scope

This disposal schedule endorses and mirrors the General Retention and Disposal Authority (GDA) for Administrative Records of National Bodies approved by the Council of Australasian Archives and Records Authorities (CAARA) on 18 October 2013, for use by national bodies that are subject to the State Records Act 1997.

The CAARA GDA for Administrative Records was developed by the CAARA National Bodies Working Group in accordance with CAARA Policy 11 – Guidelines for the Treatment of Records of Inter-Governmental Agencies. It provides agreed and consistent retention and disposal requirements across all Australian States and Territories for the records of common administrative functions that may be performed by national bodies.

National bodies are established under national schemes where Constitutional powers rest with States and Territories, and not the Commonwealth, and where the bodies concerned are not otherwise Commonwealth bodies.

Records created by national bodies' predecessor agencies are not covered by this disposal schedule. Records of common administrative functions created by predecessor agencies that are subject to the State Records Act 1997 must be disposed of in accordance with General Disposal Schedule 30 for State Government Agencies (as amended).

This disposal schedule does not authorise the disposal of records of functions that are unique to a national body(s). Records of functions that are unique need to be covered separately by a function or sector-specific operational records disposal schedule (RDS).

GDS 34 is intended to be a comprehensive schedule encompassing all administrative records of national bodies.

GDS 34 excludes records relating to child sexual abuse incidents, allegations nor an agency's prevention, identification and response to such incidents and allegations. This includes records of this nature created through an agency's reporting, oversight or regulatory relationships with other agencies.

National bodies must use General Disposal Schedule 30 for State Government Agencies in South Australia (GDS 30, as amended) for such records as detailed below:

- 5.17.9 EMPLOYEE MANAGEMENT – Training- Records relating to the development and implementation of training and education programs by agencies designed to educate employees on how to manage and respond to incidents or allegations of abuse of children, young people and vulnerable adults. Also includes vulnerable adults and adults where the incidents or allegations of abuse occurred as a child.
- 11.1.2 LEGAL SERVICES – Advice - Legal advice relating to matters concerning incidents or allegations of abuse of children and young people. Also includes vulnerable adults or adults where the incidents or allegations of abuse occurred as a child.
- 13.1.1 STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT – Advice - Records relating to the provision of advice to senior executive relating to substantive aspects of agency or matters concerning incidents or allegations of abuse of children, young people and vulnerable adults. Also includes vulnerable adults or adults where the incidents or allegations of abuse occurred as a child.

- 13.17.7 STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT – Policy- Records relating to the formulation, implementation and review of agency policies relating to the management of and response to abuse incidents or allegations of children, young people and vulnerable adults. Also includes vulnerable adults or adults where the incidents or allegations of abuse occurred as a child.
- 13.18.5 STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT – Procedures- Records relating to the formulation, implementation and review of agency procedures relating to abuse incidents or allegations of children, young people and vulnerable adults. Also includes vulnerable adults or adults where the incidents or allegations of abuse occurred as a child.
- 13.29 (various) STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT – Abuse Incidents and Allegations - Records relating to children and young people. Also includes vulnerable adults or adults where the incidents or allegations of abuse occurred as a child.

Objectives

The aims of GDS 34 are to:

- identify records which are worth preserving permanently as part of South Australia's archival heritage
- prevent the premature destruction of records which need to be retained for a specified period to satisfy legal, financial and other requirements of public administration and
- permit the destruction of those records not required permanently.

Implementation

GDS 34 is issued under the State Records Act 1997.

The State Records Act was proclaimed in October 1997 to provide for the preservation and management of official records. GDS 34 is issued as a determination under section 23 of the Act.

Section 23 of the State Records Act 1997 states that no official records may be disposed of without a determination made by the Director [Manager], State Records and approved by the State Records Council. GDS 34 provides national bodies with the means of disposing of their administrative records in an orderly, consistent and accountable manner.

GDS 34 Version 1 was approved by the State Records Council on 18 February 2014.

GDS 34 Version 2 was approved by the State Records Council on 16 December 2014.

GDS 34 Version 3 an extension request was approved by the State Records Council 28 May 2024 and is effective until 30 June 2029.

GDS 34 is issued in electronic form via State Records' website (www.archives.sa.gov.au) to allow ease of use and greater accessibility.

Any modification of the Schedule by end users is not permitted. Changes can only be made with the approval of CAARA, State Records and the State Records Council.

Updates/Amendments

GDS 34 Version 3 is effective from 26 June 2024 to 30 June 2029. An extension was approved by State Records Council, therefore changes from Version 2 to Version 3 are very minimal.

GDS 34 Version 2 is effective from 16 December 2014 to 26 June 2024.

GDS 34 Version 2 differs from Version 1 in that it incorporates two new temporary disposal classes (items 6.1.19 and 6.1.20) under FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT – Accounting.

Previous Disposal Schedules Revoked

GDS 34 Version 2 is revoked by GDS 34 Version 3.

GDS 34 Version 1 is revoked by GDS 34 Version 2.

Complementary Disposal Schedules

GDS 34 is to be complemented by RDS' developed and approved for individual national bodies.

Consultation

The CAARA Retention and Disposal Authority for Administrative Records of National Bodies – National Bodies Working Group was developed by the CAARA National Bodies Working Group in accordance with CAARA Policy 11 – Guidelines for the Treatment of Records of Inter-Governmental Agencies. The Working Group included representation from each State and Territory archives or public records authority.

GDS 34 endorses and mirrors the CAARA Retention and Disposal Authority.

Information Management Strategy and Standards

Section 14(1) of the State Records Act, 1997 allows State Records to, with the approval of the Minister, issue standards relating to the information management practices of agencies.

Part 5 of the State Records Act 1997 makes it clear that Standards issued under the Act are binding on agencies and must be complied with to ensure the care and management of information assets.

The term 'information asset' incorporates the definition of official information assets as defined by section 3(1) of the State Records Act 1997, and includes information, data and records, in any format (whether digital or hardcopy), where it is created or received through the conduct of government business.

Retention periods in GDS 34 may be applied to records on creation and registration for later review; alternatively records may be sentenced when they become non-current.

Record Formats

GDS 34 applies to records in any format. This includes paper, microform (film or fiche), audiovisual, digital, graphic, photographic and electronic media.

Access Rights and Responsibilities

National bodies need to ensure that records, irrespective of format, will remain accessible for the duration of the designate retention period. By “accessible” it is meant that the information contained within a record remains readable for the life of the record. In addition, “accessible” also refers to the retrievability and availability of a record. Whether stored on or off-site, a record needs to be able to be retrieved and made available as soon as practicable.

Retention Periods and Reactivation

Retention periods for temporary records shown in GDS 34 are minimum retention periods for which records must be retained before they are destroyed.

Retention periods are triggered by disposal actions listed in the Schedule.

If a record is reactivated after a retention period has commenced the time is recalculated from the date of the subsequent last action.

The reactivation of a record is triggered by such events as:

- record retrieved to meet a Freedom of Information (FOI) request
- record retrieved to meet a subpoena
- record accessed for research
- record identified as being of significant risk management status
- record identified as being required for possible legal proceedings.

There is no requirement to destroy temporary records if national bodies have a need to retain them longer than the designated minimum retention period. However, in the interests of efficient and economic records management, national bodies should take all steps to reduce the storage costs of time-expired records.

Relationship to Other Disposal Schedules

See scope in relation to the use of GDS 30 (as amended) for records related to child abuse incidents and allegations.

Hardcopy source records dating from 1 January 2005 that are converted to digital format (digitised) as part of business processes can be disposed of under General Disposal Schedule 21 (GDS 21) where the conditions outlined in GDS 21 are met.

State Records of South Australia issue general disposal schedules from time to time to implement disposal freezes, restricting disposal of records which might otherwise be authorised for destruction. To see the latest schedules implementing disposal freezes check the State Records of South Australia website Disposal Freezes | State Records of South Australia \(archives.sa.gov.au\).

Notification of Proposed Destruction of Records

Agencies must keep their own record of all records destroyed under this GDS, noting the relevant disposal schedule entry and the authorisation for destruction. Temporary records should only be destroyed with the approval of the CE or delegate in accordance with the Destruction of Official Records Guideline issued by State Records of South Australia.

Agencies must ensure that all destruction is secure and confidential and that a certificate confirming destruction is provided by private contractors.

Standard methods for destruction of paper are shredding, pulping or other means that are environmentally friendly.

Records in electronic format must only be destroyed by reformatting or rewriting to ensure that the data and any “pointers” in the system are destroyed. “Delete” instructions do not offer adequate security as data may be restored or recovered.

National bodies should keep their own record of all records destroyed, noting the relevant disposal authority. Proof of destruction may be required for legal purposes, or in response to FOI applications. When records are destroyed systems that control them should also be updated by inputting destruction dates and relevant disposal authorities.

Normal Administrative Practice

The destruction of some official record that are of a transitory nature only may be permitted under normal administrative practice (NAP). NAP covers the destruction of ephemeral material of a facilitative nature created, acquired or collected by staff during the course of their duties.

For further information regarding the application of NAP, agencies should refer to the Information Governance Guideline, available from the State Records website Disposal | State Records of South Australia \(archives.sa.gov.au\).

Legal Deposit

Legal deposit refers to statutory provisions that oblige publishers to deposit copies of their publications in libraries in the country in which they are published. Under the Commonwealth Copyright Act 1968 and various Australian state Acts, a copy of any work published in Australia must be deposited with (a) the National Library of Australia and (b) the appropriate State Library. Legal deposit extends not only to commercial publishers but also to private individuals, clubs, churches, societies and organisations.

In South Australia, one copy of publications produced for external use should be deposited with the State Library and the Parliamentary Library (section 35, Libraries Act 1982). Publications include books, newspapers, magazines, journals, pamphlets, maps, plans, charts, printed music, records, cassettes, films, video or audio tapes, computer software CD-ROMS, compact discs and other items made available to the public.

Compliance with the Determination

Failure to comply with this determination, or any directions in it, falls under Section 17 of the State Records Act 1997.

Records and Litigation

Where a national body is aware that records may be required for use in litigation, for use in a government inquiry or the consideration of the SA Ombudsman, the records must not be destroyed. In such circumstances the records must be retained until two years after all cases and inquiries are complete (including appeals) and then have the original retention period applied to the records.

Pre-1901 Records

All pre-1901 records are required to be retained permanently in accordance with a motion approved by the State Records Council on 19 February 2008. In this instance, however, GDS 34 does not apply to pre-1901 records.

Training

Further information about workshops and courses, national bodies should contact State Records or visit its website Education and Training | State Records of South Australia \(archives.sa.gov.au\).

Layout

The Schedule, featured in table portrait format, is arranged as described below:

Function

GDS 34 is divided into a number of functions:

- Boards and Committees
- Community Relations
- Compensation
- Equipment and Stores
- Establishment
- Financial Management
- Fleet Management
- Government Relations
- Industrial Relations
- Information Management
- Legal Services
- Personnel and Staff Development
- Property Management
- Publication

- Strategic Management
- Technology and Telecommunications
- Workplace Health and Safety
- Ephemeral Documents.

Each function is shown at the start of each division.

For each function a scope note has been included which provides a definition of the particular function. The scope note also identifies any exclusions or exceptions that the user needs to be aware of.

Item Number

The numbering in the schedule is multi-level:

- functions have single numbers
- activities have two level numbers and
- disposal classes have three level numbers.

For example:

2.	COMMUNITY RELATIONS	(FUNCTION) Description The function of establishing rapport with the community and raising and maintaining the organisation’s broad public profile. Includes marketing, advertising, media liaison, exhibitions, celebrations, ceremonies, speeches, official representation at functions and participation in community activities. Also includes relationships with professional bodies and industry, the management of customer services, handling reactions to those services, customer consultation and feedback.
2.1	Addresses (presentations)	(Activity) Description The activities involved in arranging for a journey or trip. Includes preparing travel itineraries, authorisations, entitlements etc. Also includes arrangements made for the delivery of equipment or goods and the usage made of facilities, vehicles, equipment and space.

2.1.1	Addresses (presentations) - major Records of addresses and presentations given at major state occasions, on matters of substantial public interest and debate or by agency representatives at significant events such as conferences or professional association seminars. See: Item 12.1 (various) PERSONNEL AND STAFF DEVELOPMENT – Addresses (presentations) for presentations at staff training seminars, workshops, etc,	PERMANENT	(Disposal Action) Retain as State archives.

Activity

The activity relating to the particular function is shown in 12 point bold Arial, e.g. Addresses (presentations).

Description

Descriptions are at two levels, ranging from activities to specific disposal classes.

Definitions are provided for the activities in the Schedule and are featured in 12 point italic Arial.

Descriptions of each disposal class are then provided under the activity header and description in 12 point Arial.

Disposal Action

Disposal actions relate to the disposal classes arranged under the activity descriptions. Status of the class is either PERMANENT or TEMPORARY with a disposal trigger and retention period given for all temporary records. It is to be noted that the retention period for temporary records is the minimum period.

18. EPHEMERAL DOCUMENTS

Ephemeral documents are items of short term, temporary informational value. They should not be incorporated into an agency's recordkeeping system. Their authorised destruction is often referred to as Normal Administrative Practice (NAP) – which is the routine destruction of ephemeral material of a facilitative or duplicate nature created, acquired or collected by public sector employees during the course of their duties.

The below list is not finite but contains examples of ephemeral documents which may be routinely disposed of.

Calendars and diaries - personal

Desk calendars and office diaries where no entries pertaining to work activities have been recorded.

Contact lists

Reference sets of directories, address and contact lists, including directories and lists produced by the agency, other agencies and organisations or suppliers.

Copies

Duplicate copies created for reference.

Drafts not required as public records

Drafts of reports, correspondence, routine calculations not circulated as final documents internally or externally and of which a final draft has been produced and which becomes the record of the agency.

Informational material

Informational material, including lists of suppliers, catalogues, etc.

Manuals and instructions - superseded

Superseded manuals and instructions (except for a master set which includes superseded portions).

Telephone message slips

Telephone message slips when the message does not relate to the business functions of the agency.

Transitory messages

Transitory messages of minor importance, the sole purpose of which was to provide information of temporary, short-term value or information already recorded and available in an acceptable medium (i.e. paper-based or electronic) elsewhere in the agency.

Unsolicited brochures

Brochures received regarding goods and services.

Working documents

Rough notes and diagrams which have been used solely to assist in the preparation of other records, such as correspondence, reports and statistical tabulation
