Index to Ships Arriving in South Australia from Overseas

1836–1900

HOW TO USE THIS SOURCE

This source is to be used when the name of the ship is known. It gives details of ships' arrivals, plus all available passenger lists for a particular ship and voyage.

For meaning of codes, see the list of abbreviations at the beginning of each volume.

ARRIVING AT SOUTH AUSTRALIAN PORTS

FROM OVERSEAS

1836 TO 1900

Compiled by

GEORGE H. PITT

Vol. 1 : A - J

In compiling this index the word overseas has been interpreted to include all places outside Australia and New Zealand.

The index is believed to be complete as regards arrivals at Port Adelaide, but in the case of outports, although all available records have been consulted, there must be many omissions owing to the unfortunate destruction of shipping registers.

The practice of stating the names of the ports from which vessels have arrived was begun only in the later stages of the compilation of the index, (from 1881 onwards).

Many of the passenger lists referred to are incomplete, omitting all but the cabin passengers.
