Dear Sir

I had wished to write to you at some length but the pressure of my avocations has prevented. I write this whilst the Barnard Bazaar is going out of the door, but wish to send one line to acknowledge to you my people. They are very good & I shall have a large selection of the Pictures — the bidding money is now doubled on the emigrants by a regulation just issued.

Yours Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

W. M. Mearns
