Immigrant ships' papers

Series
Description

These papers relate to ships chartered by the Colonization Commissioners to convey assisted emigrants to South Australia. Each ship had what was called a 'Charter Party', which on larger vessels could consist of a Surgeon- Superintendent, a Schoolmaster, a Hospital Assistant, a Nurse, a Matron, a number of Constables (both male and female, selected from the emigrants themselves), a Cook, a Cook's Assistant and an Issuer of Stores.

The Ships' Papers typically give information on the physical fit-out of the ship, medical 'comforts', dietary allowance for passengers, gratuities to be paid to the Charter Party, statistical summaries, births and deaths during the voyage, and the Surgeon-Superintendent's Report on the voyage and the conduct of the passengers.
