Card index to applications for assisted passage as 'Boy Migrants'

Series Description

The Big Brother scheme was a scheme under the Immigration Act of 1923. Under the Act, a 'boy migrant' was a youth between the ages of fifteen and twenty-one who came to South Australia with the assistance of the Commonwealth Government.

Boy migrants in the Big Brother Scheme were farm apprentices, and were assigned to a 'big brother' and a farmer when they arrived in Australia.

This series acts as an index to GRG 7/7, Application by youths for assisted passage as boy migrants - Big Brother Scheme.
